JEFFREY KEY
IS HEREBY CONFERRED "JOCK-OF-THE-YEAR."

(and don't you forget it)

THE JOHN AWARDS. It is with great pleasure to announce the winner of this year's YUME John Awards. After all ballots were counted and categorized, the judges assembled and began the stupendous task of computing a final victor of the total categories. The Grand Winner should come as no surprise to our loyal readers and the Diplomacy world as a whole. Said individual, having displayed those qualities of diplomatic methods, tactical brilliance, inspired and often confusing metaphors, and generally an outside world midfit, sarned the John Award. Let there be no doubt about that! Our heartfelt congratulations to the overall biggest loser of the year. A guilty frame suitable for THE JOHN AWARD is available for $500.00 from Peery Framers, San Diego, Calif.

MECHANIZED BESERKERS? Have you noticed the emergence of modern man's rebellion against authorities and his latest methods? Two recent press clippings should give rise to many theories and allegations about the course our society is approaching. First, the youth someplace in Oklahoma who, after an argument with his father, started a bulldozer and ran it 20 milss through buildings and farmlands and anything else in its path to vent his emotions. He finally ended his odyssey in a mudbank that he could not get out of and was led off somewhat dazed. Secondly, the Army Specialist/5 who, having been accused of drunkenness by MPs, ran back to his squadron, entered an MBT-60, and then proceeded to force march his way through an enlisted men's club and the barracks of the accusing MPs, causing not-200-little damage enroute. He was subdued only when the MPs mounted the tank and climbed into the turret and grappled him down. His courtmartial should be interesting in light of the charges that will probably be leveled at him. Ah, if only MIDGARD had steam engines available....

There is some truth to the rumor that Birsauronski has convinced us that he is at least part Polish in the splendid display of tactics that he provided!

DATELINE: PHILADELPHIA, TURKEY....His Most Moslem High Ruler, Allah Mohammad Yardslick III, today announced the annexation of Rumania into the Turkish Empire. It was with great regret that we do this, but alas, alack, yonder Austrians just ain't holding up their end of the bargain.

METROPOLIS: Claud Ocopokowski sat rotting in his 9x9 jail cell-perhaps if he bathed more often he would only smell, but let's not debate that-for the fifth week. His linen napkin esper was getting absolutely out of hand. Finally a sound was heard at the rusty iron door and four guards appeared. "We're going to the Senate Committee room now, Ocopokowich; come along!" "What Senate Committee is that?" asked Claud sheepishly. "The Waterbug Committee of course, Polack!" Claud marched into the crowded chamber. He was very embarrassed because his leotard was rather dirty. As he neared the witness table he tripped on his boot lace and fell in the lap of none other than Juan Mitchell, former Attorney General. "Remember, you know nothing and you have immunity from the highest level of the White House!" "You mean...?" "Yes, Tricia Nickon herself!" Claud sat at the table and trembled. Senator Cook addressed him first: "Now, Mr. Ocopokowski, tell us about picking up the Waterbug Plans from Mr. John Preem LXCVII!" "What plans, Senator?" "The ones written on that napkin you took at the Bowling Alley/Swank Polish Restaurant." "On those plans. They looked like the plans of Ipkovich Golf Course to me." "Well, they ain't, Fred, or is it Claud?" said Senator Pango-Pango. "Yes, your honor, They ARE!" said Claud proudly standing to take a bow and hearing his leotard zip for back to heel

UNDERLINED MOVES do not succeed. The Austrian Army Trieste is annihilated. Before leaving on his vacation, Don Horton signalled that his nephew, Peter Shamray would be responsible for moves for this game. I tried to call for orders but received no answer. Couldn't very well find Don in Holland or London either. It has always been my contention that the missing of moves decides more games than the actual tactics involved. General orders always give some insurance. Conditional orders also. For want of a nail, the horse was lost, etc., etc.

At that moment a shriek was heard from the balcony and, as all eyes turned toward the scene, Lois Levandowski (alias Betty Woman) swung into the room on her 80ft life line. "Here come, honey!" She crashed into the Senate table and tackled Senator Irwon. "My sweet molasses baby!" she cried! "Not at the office, my little sugar plum. Here's $132.98. Go to an ice cream parlor and gut it!" "Your such a sweet ice cream daddy!"

Meanwhile, the medical corps was trying to revive Senator Cook and to remove the skate board from Senator Pango Pango's mouth.

Claud just got up and left the room to go to the wash room. A few minutes later Claud heard the Dead or Alive call go out on the building's Intercom. "He's a vierdo pansy in a leotard" the voice said.

SPECIAL REPORT: THE KEY MEMORIAL BLITZ. OUR VERSION OF WHAT HAPPENED BEFORE THAT MAD DOG GETS BACK TO HIS HOPELESS INTERSECTION AND RANTS OUT HIS VERSION.....

Have you ever started to do something and been interrupted by unexpected visitors? This issue of JASTRZAB suffered that fate due to the arrival of BIRSZAURONSKI again. Only he stayed three days instead of a few hours. The deadline for this issue was Monday night. Half of the game were typed out then. This is now Sunday morning. It has taken us two days just to recover Tuesday. Birsan arrives...visits Koning until we get out of work...tank battle that night with the usual results, a Polish victory! HAM sleep-time. Wednesday, half a work day...two tank battle that afternoon with two more Polish victories. Wednesday evening, a visit to Koning together followed by same conversation followed by a long, long, long tank battle. Results a Birsauron Victory! another HAM sleep-time. Thursday a long work day followed by a space battle---Poland won that because they were supposed to---followed by an Afrika Corps scenario with tanks. Now, dear readers, it is about Midnight when we begin this battle (or end this, I'm vague about what day it was by this point). Birsauronski has hammered and battered until he pulls out a tremendous moral victory for himself---the second tank victory in a row! Our string is pulled! Being one is acceptable once in a while. Two is humiliation and shocking! Following this bad demonstration, he then proceeds to warp our minds at a mini-Jatland demonstration. Sleep-time is 3:30. Work day the next day. Monday night to Friday morning: average sleep- 1 1/2 hours, 35 hours of working, 24 hours of gaming. MORAL: You can beat Poland by exhausting them! HE'S ready for Chicago. OUR minds are permanently warped. SECOND MORAL: Birsan is a Polish HAM!

ST. PETERSBURG: The Czar has finally determined Italy's aim while the rest of the world is engaged in massive wars against each other. The Italians are enslaving the WOMEN of the world. His plan is to gain enough money through ransoms and prostitution to move to America and take over Chicago!!!

MOSCOW: The Czar has pronounced this statement: "those who believe in Peace (such as Italy) are whipping the proverbial dead horses!!!

CORSICA: M. Fouquier-Tinville, French special commercial envoy to Turkey, was washed ashore here during a winter storm in which his ship foundered. Because of the absence of French naval vessels in the Mediterranean, M. Fouquier-Tinville had been forced to travel on an Icelandic cod trawler, Iceland being the only country still maintaining friendly diplomatic relations with France. When asked by local reporters what would be the reaction of the government in Paris if England and Germany both declared war on France, M. Fouquier-Tinville said "Almost ninety years ago the English and the Germans joined forces against us, and yet we almost triumphed. As was the case then, the perfidious English are bringing war to the continent, and the slow-witted Germans are their puppets. This time we shall carry the war to England. A forest of Guillotines will be erected in Trafalger Square, and English heads will fall like ripe apples in a windstorm."

JASNY GORKI: Strong Words from the safety of Corsica....

ROME: STAN, YOU MAY LOOK LIKE BEN BIRSAN BUT YOU ARE STARTING TO WRITE LIKE "CONNIE."

JASNY GORKI: CHARLES, THE FIRST COMPARISON IS UNKIND TO ME, BUT THE SECOND CAN BE CONSTRUED AS FLATTERY. "CONNIE" BARENTS WRITES VERY NICELY.....

BERLIN: Upon hearing the news of the French governments overthrow and the subsequent takeover by some preverted Air Force Captain who only reads Balzac's Droll Stories, Chancellor Bismark has ordered German doctors to interfere so that the VD epidemic will not spread to the more civilized nations of Belgium, Luxembourg, and even the fatherland. These medical units are being assembled at Munich and Kiel. They will proceed to first eradicate the disease in Belgium and then even France will be cured of the awful outbreak. The French Captain has been quoted as saying that the disease must be cut off at the roots to there-fore it has been ordered that his root will be the first to go. After France is once again free for free love, the Italians will be closely watched as it is believed that many of the Italians general's behinds are involved in the spreading of the disease, as it has been proven that the French were infected by cattle that had wandered across the border from Italy. And everyone knows how Italians like cows. The current bestseller in Italy is entitled THE SENSUOUS CO.

ROME: The latest craze here is guessing the number of days before the French dupe, General Klutz, is shafted by his so-called "ally", Kaiser Fehler. It should be noted that Klutz's ally is two units up on him already and while Klutz's attack against the Italian empire is shortly due to become a forced retreat, the Kaiser's prospects look relatively good. On the English front, Klutz is again taking the heat while his "ally" moves in for the kill. Any gains the French dupe might make would be totally at the sufferage of his rapidly expanding "ally" and anyone who thinks that such gains could be anything but minimal and temporary simply doesn't know the treacherous Fehler. We do however have a solution. If the French will withdraw their forces from the Mediterranean and move against their treacherous "ally" instead, presumably with the willing help of the English, we will refrain from moving against him and will instead move to repel the German invader from the territory of our Austrian ally and incidentally to neutralize the yellow peril from the east. We note in the interests of international peace and harmony, that Belgium currently looks ripe for liberation; plans for this and other methods of preemptive retaliation available on request ((AS WELL AS SOME VERY INTERESTING FRENCH POSTCARDS)).

JOHN KOWING (ALIAS SAURON THE SICKLY) IS STILL INTERRED IN ROOM 5266, ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL, YOUNGSTOWN OHIO. SA ERED LUIN II to BARANDUIN.
SA PELARGIR-ITHILLEN.

UNDERLINED MOVES do not succeed. The Mordor SA Dol Gulder is annihilated. The Rohanese SA Dagorlad is displaced and must retreat to Eryn Muil or off-the-board. No Press !?!?!?

Apparently there is enough interest to at least advertise opening another section of LO. Filling the Mordor position is always easy. Paul Bond will apparently be the masochist for this section. The free peoples: Four have contracted in one way or another for positions. Edi Birsan, Brian Libby, Doug Gray, and Chic Hilliker who threatened unmentionable atrocities if not invited to partake in the Mordorese feasts. Therefore, by Polish arithmetic, we need one more ~~dummy~~ player to begin. So far it would appear to be a good geographic representation of players. Last issue we mentioned the possibility of starting the ring in another neutral center besides THE SHIRE. Upon greater reflection we realized that THE SHIRE is the only neutral center that Mordor cannot reach in the first year. Ending the game possibly in the first year would be frowned upon by most bloodthirsty players so we shall conveniently just shelf that idea. One variation from the game now in progress will be the discontinuance of the practice of phoning collect for orders. That should place more stress on the postal aspect and give Sauron somewhat more of a chance.
